ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion to continue by defendant Omar Santana (Santana) (Filing No. 29). Santana seeks a sixty-day continuance of the trial of this matter scheduled for January 26, 2015. Santana's counsel represents Santana will file an affidavit whereby Santana consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act. Santana's counsel represents that government's counsel has no objection to the motion. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Santana's motion to continue trial (Filing No. 29) is granted.
2. Trial of this matter is re-scheduled for March 2, 2015, before Senior Judge Joseph F. Bataillon and a jury. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between January 16, 2015, and March 2, 2015, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason that defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 16th day of January, 2015.

United States Magistrate Judge
